SCARCITY OF LEMONS -During the last f-w days the price of lemons has advanced from $3.50 a box to $4.50, and there is every indication that the price will soar still higher. It is said there is a shortage of the truit, but this is denied by some of the dealers, who claim that the advance in price s due to the demand which was increased by the warm weather. The increase of $1 on a box containing 300 or 360 lemonplaces them in the hands of the re-ailer at about 12 cents apiece. Those who wished to enjoy the cooling effects of a glass of lemonade had to pay for the luxury, and it is said that, notwithstanding the price, the lemons, in moscases, were of a very inferior quality. Most, if not all, of the lem us brought to Baltimore are shipped from ports it the Mediterranean sea. There are no vessels bound here with the fruit, and the rumored scarcity will be a reality if the weather should continue warm. - [Baltimore News.

MR. ASTOR .- A telegram from London says: The departure of Mr. William Waldorf As or for Carlsbad and the canceling of the invitations to various affairs, including another concert, have been the talk of Lordon. The Milne incident is severely criti-cised. The appearance of Sir Berke-ley Milne in the opera box with the Prince and the Princess of Wales was sufficient to show in which way the wind was blowing. Mr. A tor's concert, however, was a great success. Miss Astor stood at the top of the stairway with her father and received the guests. She was simply gowned in white. Paderewski's admirers almost mobbed him, and it was impossible to get anywhere near the piano.

IS IT RIGHT For an Editor to Recommend Pat-tent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard,

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Distriction Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do be-lieve that if a bottle of Cnamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by all druggists.
